School days

A typical rural school of nearly 90 years ago was S.W. Fisher School at Fisher's Landing, located near the present intersection of Southeast 164th Avenue and Old Evergreen Highway. The entire student body turned out for this photograph in 1902.